

39-6-26 Charges to be forwarded to governor or adjutant general.

When a person is held for trial by military court, the commanding officer shall forward the charges, together with the investigation and related papers, to the governor or the adjutant general within five working days, excluding holidays, after the accused is ordered into arrest or confinement.

Enacted by Chapter 210, 1988 General Session